LAKE COUNTY, ILLINOIS

PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS

Case No. _____

EXHIBIT B
Additional Court Conditions
Supervised Treatment Opioid Program (STOP)

Defendant has been sentenced to a term of Probation Alternative Prosecution Supervised Supervision 570/410 Probation and ordered to be supervised by the STOP Program with Adult Probation Services Division of the 19th Judicial Circuit. Defendant is therefore subject to the following additional terms and conditions which defendant understands and agrees to strictly comply with:

- A. Remain drug and alcohol free for the duration of the program. Not consume or ingest any over-the-counter medication, supplement, herbal extract, liquid or other item or substance which mimics the effect of any controlled substance, or any way has mind, mood, or behavior altering capabilities. Defendant agrees to submit to random urinalysis and/or breathalyzer tests, as required by the Court, Probation Officer or treatment provider.
- B. Appear in court as directed, report to Probation Department as directed, and attend all scheduled treatment appointments as directed.
- C. Not operate a motorized vehicle unless the Probation Officer has previously viewed and confirmed the validity of the Defendant's driver's license or permit and current liability insurance.
- D. Provide his/her Probation Officer with the name(s) and contact information of all persons that regularly provide Defendant with transportation when Defendant is unable to operate a motor vehicle himself/herself.
- E. Not reside in any house, apartment unit, condominium unit or other location where alcoholic beverages are present or regularly consumed, and not possess any alcoholic beverages himself/herself.
- F. Report to his/her Probation Officer as often as directed and within the time frames that are directed; verify residence and employment at each office meeting; provide proof of progress in completion of treatment requirements at each office meeting; permit his/her Probation Officer to visit him/her at any location without prior notice, granting the Officer entrance and access to such location to the extent that is necessary to carry out the duties as ordered; and cooperate in facilitating collateral contacts that shall be made by the Probation Officer (such as a spouse, alcohol counselor, or significant other).
- G. Comply with a daily curfew requiring Defendant to be in his/her residence except when performing probation obligations, attending treatment, working at employment approved by Probation Officer, attending court, or attending to other specific activities which have been approved in advance by his/her Probation Officer. The Defendant's Probation Officer may lessen, reinstate or increase this curfew up to a 24-hour curfew based upon Defendant's compliance and performance.
- H. Not change place of residence without the prior notification to and permission of his/her Probation Officer.
