

Need Help?

Don't understand that arcane legal reference your patron just asked about? Can't find Internal Revenue Service Regulation 601.702? Need information about county tax sales?

The Illinois County Law Library Association is a professional consortium made of up of County Law Libraries across the State of Illinois. In the interest of furthering and strengthening professional relations between public and county law libraries, several members have made themselves available to help you with your questions concerning legal research.
