19TH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT JUDGE ORTIZ RE-APPOINTED TO JUDICIAL CONFERENCE OF ILLINOIS

Pursuant to Order MR785, the Illinois Supreme Court has re-appointed Lake County Circuit Court Judge Jorge Ortiz to serve on the Judicial Conference of Illinois for another three-year term. The Conference's charge is to consider the work of the courts and suggest improvements in the administration of justice. It also conducts strategic planning for the courts.

"I am honored to continue serving as a member of the Judicial Conference and working to enhance access to justice and improve how our courts work in Illinois" said Judge Ortiz. Ortiz, who has served on the bench since 2002, is a former Lake County Chief Judge, and is presently assigned to Juvenile Court.
