19TH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT'S NEW WEBSITE GOES LIVE

The 19th Judicial Circuit Court is excited to announce the launch of its new website, www.19thcircuitcourt.state.il.us. New design and layout, new user friendly tools, and easy navigation are just a few new features of the Court's new website.

The sleeker design makes information easier to locate and the most commonly requested information, such as juror information, self-help legal resources, court calendars and probation services, more readily accessible. News and announcements from the 19th Judicial Circuit are now more prominently displayed on the home page. The website search button is larger and easier to see on every page. You can also find social media tools on every page, as you can now "share" the page to Facebook, Twitter, or other common social media pages.

Additional features include the ability for visitors to sign up for notifications if they want to follow a certain page or event. Also new, it offers responsive design for optimal viewing and interaction on a variety of devices, including smartphones and tablets.

We encourage you to check us out today – so please share with friends and colleagues!

We welcome your comments and would very much like to hear from you. Please contact us at courts@lakecountyil.gov if you have questions or suggestions about our site. Thank you.
