News from the Judicial Information Services Division: Fact Sheet

Last update: April 2018

The Judicial Information Services Division provides various support on information technology-based solutions, services and support to the Court organization. The services and support includes user and application support; user training; management and development of systems on both hardware and software; research and development of new technology applicable to the system supporting the mission and goals of the Court. The division often serves as a liaison with other Lake County offices and state agencies.

The content is being written for this new year. Please check back later.