

News from the Judicial Operations Division: Fact Sheet

Last update: April 2019

The Judicial Operations division focuses on the daily operations of the court. The division provides support and guidance in the areas of trial court operations including alternative dispute resolution, caseflow management, court reporters, court interpreters and general office support. Other key areas of the division include the jury commission, law library and children's waiting center.

The content is being written for this new year. Please check back later.